

Thoroughbred

Type: Light Breed, Racing type

Origin: England

Uses: Racing, polo, foxhunting, showing, dressage, jumping, eventing

Important Traits: Speed, racing

Size: 15 to 17 Hands

Description: The Thoroughbred has a straight profile. The back is long and the withers are prominent. Very athletic. Lean musculature, although very strong.

Color Pattern: Colors are bay, black, chestnut, or gray. It is common for white marking on lower legs and the face.

